

In 1991, Harry J. Sichi and Michael J. Lewis launched Quick Med Claims with a vision to provide superior service to the emergency medical transportation community. Since then, QMC has evolved into a nationally recognized leader who has set the bar for exemplary customer service.

QMC now offers billing and reimbursement services for a variety of helicopter, fixed wing and ground ambulance services. Noteworthy milestones in the evolution of the organization include:

1991 – Company Founded

1992 – First Ground Ambulance contract (Pittsburgh local area)

1994 – First Ground contract outside the Pittsburgh local area

1997 – First air medical services client

2002 – Relocated to new facility due to ongoing organizational growth

2003 - QMC grows to 25 employees

2004 - Began utilizing Zoll RescueNet Software as the foundation software for billing

2005 - Company hires its first general manager

2007 - Company invests in data security with bi-coastal backup systems

2008 - Company hires its first Human Resource Director

2009 - QMC Team grows to 75 employees

2010 - A dedicated training center is added to support the continued growth

2011 - QMC now handles more than 400,000 transports in a single year. More than 50

staff personnel complete the Certified Ambulance Coder Certification (CAC)

2012 - QMC Team grows to 100 staff members requiring the addition of another Billing

Director and several Account Managers. 450,000 transports billed

2013 - Upgraded file servers and hired a Director of Finance. Added 1500 sq. feet of additional space to accommodate ever-growing staff.

2015 - Growth investment acquisition by BB&T Capital Partners. QMC hires a Sales Executive and Manager of Business Development/Marketing. Staff grows to 150

2016 - QMC Acquires MedServ International's (MSI) Billing Division based in Platte City, MO.

2017 – QMC Acquires The Holdsworth Group Billing Division, Cromwell, CT. QMC now processes over 500,000 claims annually

